

23rd January 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am writing to inform you that Mrs Henderson shall be starting her maternity leave this week, therefore her last day will be Wednesday 25th January. I'm sure you'll join us in wishing her all the best and we look forward to meeting baby Henderson and having cuddles soon.

As previously mentioned, Mrs Norman has kindly agreed to teach Magpie class for additional days, allowing consistency for the children.

Kind regards,

Mrs V Farr
Head Teacher
